

I find it extremely alarming that the FCC fines stations thousands of dollars over the use of profanity heard on the local schoolgrounds but they do nothing to stop Sinclair Broadcasting from using the public airways for blatant electioneering. Why are they being allowed to force their stations to pre-empt regular broadcasts to show blatant propaganda against John Kerry (Stolen Honor: Wounds that never heal')? Why were they allowed to pre-empt NightLine when they broadcasted a tribute to the soldiers killed in Iraq?

Media consolidation has gone too far. Censorship of political opinion must be stopped.

Sinclair Broadcasting must serve the public - not George W. Bush and his machine.
